

Apr 30, 1862.

General Halleck displaced Grant, when in reorganizing the Army, he deprived Grant of any actual command of troops but made him second to himself.

He told Sherman he was leaving but Sherman talked him staying in knowing that some accident
would restore Grant to command

1862

(1837- ?)

George Dewey

1912 Dates J-BK

A famous officer in the American Navy. Born at Montpelier, Vt. graduated from Annapolis Naval Academy in class of 1858.

At outbreak of Civil War, Dewey was commissioned a lieutenant serving on the Mississippi. He was present when the West Gulf Squadron forced a passage up the Mississippi.

about of Farragut in 1862. He attained the rank of Commodore in 1896
at the age of 59.

In 1898, when war with Spain
broke out, he was placed in command of the Asiatic Squadron. He sailed for MIRS BAY, CHINA, Apr 27, 1898 under orders to capture or destroy the Spanish fleet.

1862

1912 Dates J-BK

(1803-1889) JOHN ERICSSON

Born in Sweden. Engineer in the Army. In 1826 went to England and worked on steam machinery introducing the new screw propeller.

1839- Came to N. Y. C.

Identified with many innovations mainly for building of monitors in the Civil War. His 1st one was built in less than four months

and defeated the Confederate Merrimack
in Hampton Roads (1862)

May 1, 1862

Farragut formally turned over New Orleans to General Butler

May 3, 1862

Joseph E. Johnston evacuated Yorktown. He was followed in the retreat by the Union forces who brought on a battle at Williamsburg
resulting in their defeat

May 4, 1862

McClellan occupied Yorktown, Virginia
after Confederate withdrawal on previous day

MAY 5, 1862

CINCO DE MAYO

NAPOLEON III and 6,000 French Troops
were in PUEBLA

General ZARAGOZA + 2000 soldiers
mostly Indian tribesmen (almost no guns)
but with machetes & knives met the French

As many as 1,000 French were killed. ZARAGOZA lost only 86. He declared 5 de mayo a national holiday.

Ignacio Seguin Zaragoza was born @ La Bahia Presidio in Goliad. Studied law and religion in MATAMOROS and MONTERREY.
By 1852 he had chosen a military career.
In 1861, Benito JUAREZ became Pres. of Mexico and appointed Zaragoza Minister of War &
Minister of the Navy

5 MAY 1862

General ZARAGOZA + 2000 soldiers - mostly Indian boys (with almost no guns met the French Napoleon III
and his 6000 troops at PUEBLA
About 1000 French killed. Zaragoza lost only 86.
Won independence from France

may 5, 1862

Mexican forces loyal to Benito
Juarez defeated French troops sent by Napoleon III in the Battle of Puebla.

May 5, 1862

1912 Dates J-BK

Battle: Williamsburg

Confed Longstreet

w/ 25,000

loss 2,000

defeated

Hooker

w/ ?

loss ?

5 MAY 1862

CINCO DE MAYO

napoleon III And his 6000 French troops Arrived in PUEBLA

GENERAL ZARAGOZA + 2000 soldiers, mostly Indian tribesmen with almost no gun but with machetes and knives met the French. Approx 1000 French were killed. Zaragoza lost only 86

HE DECLARED CINCO DE MAYO a national holiday.

ZARAGOZA was a Texan-born IGNACIO SEGUIW
ZARAGOZA @ La Bahia Presidio in GOLIAD, studied law & religion in MATAMOROS and MONTERREY. By 1852 he had chosen a military career.

In 1861, BENITO JUARAZ became Pres.
of MEXICO and appointed ZARAGOZA - Minister
of War and Minister of the Navy.

Zaragoza had studied military subjects in Mexico.

But Napoleon III had an ill-stored
entirety of an empire 1864-1867

1867 Juarez was again Pres. Juarez died 1872